

Pete Anderson
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, PRINCIPAL - INVESTMENTS

Pete Anderson was named Executive Vice President, Principal-Investments of Becknell Industrial in January 2013.

Mr. Anderson joined the Becknell team in 2011 and oversees the Company's property investment activities that are essential to the growth of the portfolio. His focus is to identify acquisition opportunities that complement the Company's existing assets and allow Becknell to foster new relationships.

With more than twenty-years of commercial real estate and law experience, Pete's skill set and market knowledge includes fifteen years of direct acquisition, leasing and development experience throughout the Midwest, Southeast and East Coast.

Prior to joining Becknell Industrial, Pete served for three years as a top ten broker at Cassidy Turley in Indianapolis. He also previously spent more than 13 years at Duke Realty Corporation, where he held numerous positions relating to the acquisition, development and leasing of Duke's industrial, office and medical office portfolio. During his tenure, Duke's portfolio grew from five cities and approximately 15 million square feet to 14 cities and more than 100 million square feet.

Pete is a graduate of Purdue University and received his JD/MBA from Indiana University. He is a member of the Indiana State Bar Association. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees for the Booth Tarkington Civic Theater and is President of the Hoosier Fellows Leadership Program Alumni Association.
